NARRATIVE:

James Valenzuela has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include multiple cases of battery, willful cruelty to a child, burglary, false imprisonment, domestic violence with injury, trespassing, vandalism, unauthorized possession of syringe, transporting controlled substances for sale, being under the influence of PCP, driving with a suspended license and possession of drug paraphernalia. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 2 year term for domestic violence with injury. Valenzuela was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 30, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Valenzuela qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
